

Beyond Shelter, Inc. Announces Appointment of New CEO

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – August 27, 2014

The Beyond Shelter, Inc. (BSI) Board of Directors has appointed Daniel Madler as the organization's new Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Madler has over 20 years in the affordable housing industry, including over 11 years with BSI, most recently serving as the organization's chief operating officer. He is currently an Advisory Council member of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines, IA and is a board member of the North Dakota Association of Nonprofit Organizations (NDANO) serving as chairman of NDANO's finance and public policy committees.

Mr. Madler says, "It is a privilege to be given the opportunity to lead this great organization and I'm looking forward to working with the BSI team and its stakeholders to advance the mission of BSI. I would also like to take this opportunity on behalf of all the people of BSI to express our heartfelt appreciation to our outgoing CEO Lynn Fundingsland, for everything he has done for BSI over the past 15 years."

BSI is a nonprofit developer of affordable housing whose mission is "improving lives and creating communities by developing housing for those most in need." To-date, BSI has participated in the development of 31 affordable housing projects totaling 845 apartment homes, helping to ensure that those most in need, can remain in the communities that they call home.
